

Kindergarten News from
Miss Bower's Class
February 14, 2014

Happy
Valentine's
Day

Our Week!

This week went by so fast! We had a blast at our Valentine's Day Celebration and the kids enjoyed giving and receiving treats from their friends. Thank you all for your donations and generosity with all of the valentine goodies! 😊

In writing we continued to work hard on our "how-to" pieces. The kiddos have gotten so good at teaching someone else how to do something!

Monday is our 100th day of school! I cannot believe it!! We look forward to having a large celebration when we return from break! Have a wonderful, relaxing, February break! 😊

Homework

Finish your 100's Day Project over February Break so it can be turned in for our hundreds day celebration! (2/24)

100!

Clifford is going home with,
Nathan Higgins!

Some of the Great Read Alouds from this Week!

Love, Ruby Valentine– Laurie Friedman

The Yuckiest, Stinkiest, Best Valentine Ever– Brenda Ferber

The Biggest Valentine Ever– Steven Kroll

Amelia Bedelia's First Valentine– Herman Parish

Important Dates:

February 17–21 – NO SCHOOL!!

February 24th – Hundred's Day Celebration!

February 26th – Library Day

Sight Word Practice:

Your child brought home a ring of sight words today. Please start practicing these at home! In addition to knowing the words by sight, students also need to be able to write the word from memory without using the word as a reference!

100's Day Volunteers

Our 100th day of school is right around the corner! ☺ Thank you to everyone who has donated items or volunteered to come in! I sent a letter home this week reminding people to send in their donations and their hundred's day projects, too! Here is a list of volunteers for the afternoon:

Mrs. Fiorino
Ms. Alessi

Mrs. Sidebotham
Mrs. Zarpentine
Mr. and Mrs. Brunson

Mrs. Farrell
Mrs. Losey