Our Week!

I apologize for not getting a newsletter out last week! I had all four wisdom teeth removed and I was on the couch for about 3 days straight!! This week we focused on healthy habits and discussed the things we do that keep our bodies healthy. We also looked at My Plate and discussed the food groups and what eating a balanced meal means.

Since we finished up our non-fiction bear unit, we moved to fiction bears and discussed the differences between real bears and teddy bears. We had a blast at our Teddy Bear Picnic! In math, we looked at arrangements of numbers and created our "Ways to Make" booklets. We have moved into learning characteristics of both 2 and 3 dimensional shapes and will continue this next week.

Have a wonderful weekend and let's hope the expected warmth stays with us! ☺
